

California Consumer Privacy Act

Notice for California Consumers

Effective on April 6th, 2023

This notice describes the rights of Californians under the California Consumer Privacy Act of 2018 ("CCPA"). The CCPA requires businesses like us that receive information from more than fifty thousand California consumers to provide certain information to them. We fully describe our practices to all our members and visitors in our Privacy Policy but use this separate notice to ensure that we meet the CCPA's requirements. This notice contains the following four parts:

- We Do Not Sell Your Personal Information
- Your CCPA Rights
- The CCPA Categories of Personal Information We Collect and the Sources
- The CCPA Categories of Personal Information We Share for a "Business Purpose"

1. We Do Not Sell Your Personal Information

The CCPA requires us to disclose whether we sell your personal information. We do not sell your personal information.

2. Your Rights Under the CCPA

The CCPA provides Californians with the following rights:

2.1 Requests for Information

Like all our members, you (or your authorized agent) can request a copy of your personal information. Under the CCPA, you can also request that we disclose how we have collected, used, and shared your personal information over the past 12 months, including the categories of personal information we collected and our purposes for doing so; the categories of sources for that information; the categories of third parties with whom we shared it for a business purpose and our purposes for doing so. Companies that sell personal information (we do not) must make additional disclosures.

2.2 Your Right to Opt Out of Sales

We do not sell personal information, so we don't have an opt out.

2.3 Your Right to Notification

Under the CCPA, a business like Bahaus Dessau Informatika LLC (dba SpaceApp), cannot collect new categories of personal information or use them for materially different purposes without first notifying you.

2.4 Nondiscrimination for Exercising Your CCPA Rights

The CCPA prohibits businesses from discriminating against you for exercising your rights under the law. Such discrimination may include denying services, charging different prices or rates for services, providing a different level or quality of services, or suggesting that you will receive a different level or quality of goods or services as a result of exercising your rights.

2.5 Your Right to Delete Personal Information

Like all of our members, you can request that we delete your personal information by closing your SpaceApp.org account. You also can request that we delete specific information about you. We honor such requests unless an exception applies, such as when the information is necessary to complete the transaction or contract for which it was collected or when information is being used to detect, prevent, or investigate security incidents, comply with laws, identify and repair bugs, or ensure another consumer's ability to exercise their free speech rights or other rights provided by law.

2.6 SpaceApp.org Annual Metrics as Required by Regulation § 999.317(g)

Please contact us at customer.service@spaceapp.org to request metrics for the past calendar year.

3. The CCPA Categories of Personal Information We Collect and the Sources

Our Privacy Policy describes the information we collect and its sources. This notice organizes that information around the personal information categories set forth in the CCPA.

We use this personal information for the purposes outlined in Section 2 of our Privacy Policy.

4. The CCPA Categories of Personal Information We Share for a “Business Purpose.”

While we do not sell your personal information, we may share it to support our own operational purposes in providing our Services to you, as described in our Privacy Policy. These operational purposes, known as “business purposes”, under the CCPA, are described below. In addition, we may share personal information at your direction, such as when you choose to communicate with other members through our Services.

4.1 Auditing Interactions

We may share the types of personal information listed in Section 3 with partners, service providers and related companies, to audit interactions and transactions, such as to count or verify the positioning and quality of ad impressions.

4.2 Security Purposes

In order to secure our Services, including to detect, prevent, and investigate security incidents or violations of our Professional Community Policies or applicable laws, we may share the types of personal information listed in Section 3 with our partners, service providers, law enforcement, and related companies.

4.3 Service Improvements

In order to improve our Services (such as to identify bugs, repair errors, or ensure that services function as intended) or conduct internal research and analysis to improve our technology, we may share the types of personal information listed in Section 3 with our partners, service providers, and related companies.

4.4 Service Providers and Other Notified Purposes

We may share the types of personal information listed in Section 3 with Service Providers, as defined by the CCPA, in order to have them perform services specified by a written contract or with others for a notified purpose permitted by the CCPA (e.g., to respond to law enforcement requests).
